Stewardship

A Way of Life

Bulletin Reflection

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells another parable as a warning to Israel, similar to the past weeks, about the importance of following God in word and deed.

St. Vincent de Paul

“In our calling, we are patterned more closely to Our Lord Jesus Christ, who, it would seem, made it his principal task to assist and care for the poor: “He sent me to preach good news to the poor.” If somebody asked Our Lord, “Why did you come on earth?” He would answer: “To assist the poor...” And so, are we not then the happiest of people to be part of the Mission for the very same reason that moved God to become one of us? –St.

Vincent de Paul-

INTRODUCTION TO THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

God's generosity was poured forth with the gift of God's only Son. In solemn remembrance we now raise our voices in thanksgiving for this great gift.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

How can God's generosity give me peace of mind through difficult times?

EUCCHARISTIC REVIVAL BULLETIN INFORMATION

WEEK 4

On November 14, 1996, the National Conference of Catholic Bishops approved the following guidelines on the reception of Communion. These guidelines replace the guidelines approved by the Administrative Committee of the NCCB in November 1986. The guidelines, which are to be included in missalettes and other participation aids published in the United States, seek to remind all those who may attend Catholic liturgies of the present discipline of the Church with regard to the sharing of Eucharistic Communion.

For Catholics

As Catholics, we fully participate in the celebration of the Eucharist when we receive Holy Communion. We are encouraged to receive Communion devoutly and frequently. In order to be properly disposed to receive Communion, participants should not be conscious of grave sin and normally should have fasted for one hour. A person who is conscious of grave sin is not to receive the Body and Blood of the Lord without prior sacramental confession except for a grave reason where there is no opportunity for confession. In this case, the person is to be mindful of the obligation to make an act of perfect contrition, including the intention of confessing as soon as possible (canon 916). A frequent reception of the Sacrament of Penance is encouraged for all.

For our fellow Christians

We welcome our fellow Christians to this celebration of the Eucharist as our brothers and sisters. We pray that our common baptism and the action of the Holy Spirit in this Eucharist will draw us closer to one another and begin to dispel the sad divisions which separate us. We pray that these will lessen and finally disappear, in keeping with Christ's prayer for us "that they may all be one" (Jn 17:21).

Because Catholics believe that the celebration of the Eucharist is a sign of the reality of the oneness of faith, life, and worship, members of those churches with whom we are not yet fully united are ordinarily not admitted to Holy Communion. Eucharistic sharing in exceptional circumstances by other Christians requires permission according to the directives of the diocesan bishop and the provisions of canon law (canon 844 §4). Members of the Orthodox Churches, the Assyrian Church of the East, and the Polish National Catholic Church are urged to respect the discipline of their own Churches. According to Roman Catholic discipline, the Code of Canon Law does not object to the reception of Communion by Christians of these Churches (canon 844 §3).

For those not receiving Holy Communion

All who are not receiving Holy Communion are encouraged to express in their hearts a prayerful desire for unity with the Lord Jesus and with one another.

For non-Christians

We also welcome to this celebration those who do not share our faith in Jesus Christ. While we cannot admit them to Holy Communion, we ask them to offer their prayers for the peace and the unity of the human family.

It is our duty as Catholics to make sure people are respecting the Eucharist. I have had many instances where I had to find a polite way to tell someone it is not proper to receive communion or ask them for the Eucharist back when they put it in their pocket. If you do not feel comfortable, find a Eucharistic minister, they will be happy to assist you.
The Eucharist can not be taken out of the church.*

God Bless.

Act of Contrition

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee, and I detest all my sins because of thy just punishments, but most of all because they offend Thee, my God, who art all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve with the help of Thy grace to sin no more and to avoid the near occasion of sin. Amen.

St. Gerard Majella

Feast October 16

Gerard Majella (1726-1755) is known popularly today as "The Mothers' Saint." It may seem odd that a male religious should be the saint for mothers, mothers-to-be and those wanting to become mothers, but through his powerful intercession there have been many miracles.

St Gerard Majella, a Redemptorist priest, faithfully followed the vows of Poverty, Chasity and Obedience and did not abandon his fondness for the poor.

On Sunday, October 15, St. Gerard will receive a special place at St. Jude Church. During the 10 am Sunday Mass, we are placing his beautiful statue from Italy, donated by a parishioner. We are blessed to have St. Gerard interceding for us, especially during the Month of October Respect Life.

St Gerard Majella is the Patron Saint of:

- Mothers (and expectant mothers in particular)
- Motherhood
- Lay brothers
- Good confessions
- Children (and unborn children in particular)
- Childbirth

"Consider the shortness of time, the length of eternity and reflect on how everything here [on earth] comes to an end and passes by. Of what use is it to lean upon that which cannot give support?"
-St. Gerard Majella

Almighty and loving Father, I thank you for giving St. Gerard to us as a great role model and powerful friend. Through his example, he has shown us how to love and trust You. You shower many blessings on those who call upon his assistance.

For Your greater glory and my welfare, please grant me the favors which I now ask in his name.

(Share your request...)

And you, my powerful patron, St Gerard Majella, intercede for me before the throne of God.

Draw near to His throne and do not leave until you have been heard.

O Good Saint, to you, I address my fervent prayers; graciously accept them and let me experience in some way the effects of your powerful intercession. Amen.

WORLD MISSION DAY

One Sunday for the whole world - October 22, 2023

Collection at Masses Oct 21st and 22nd

Pope Francis, in his message for World Mission Sunday 2023, reflects on the theme "Hearts on fire, feet on the move," based on the story of the disciples who encounter Jesus on their way to Emmaus (cf. Lk 24:13-35). He invites all of us to "set out once more, illumined by our encounter with the risen Lord and prompted by his Spirit. Let us set out again with burning hearts, with our eyes open and our feet in motion.

Let us set out to make other hearts burn with the word of God, to open the eyes of others to Jesus in the Eucharist, and to invite everyone to walk together on the path of peace and salvation that God, in Christ, has bestowed upon all humanity."

On World Mission Sunday, we join our Holy Father in supporting his missions. As we pray and respond here at home, we share in those celebrations taking place in every parish and school throughout the world. Together, through our prayers and financial support, we bring the Lord's mercy and concrete help to the most vulnerable communities in the Pope's missions.

In a world where so much divides us, World Mission Sunday rejoices in our unity as missionaries by our Baptism, as it offers each one of us an opportunity to support the life-giving presence of the Church among the poor and marginalized in more than 1,111 mission dioceses.

“Each one will be like a shelter from the wind and a refuge from the storm, like streams of water in the desert and the shadow of a great rock in a thirsty land.” (Isaiah 4:6)

October 2023

As we enter the beautiful season of autumn, it is a wonderful time to reflect on the spiritual growth and expansion of our faith, especially as we approach the culmination of our liturgical year. I pray that you and your loved ones are well and that you have a blessed holiday season with them. I would like to express my gratitude to you and your fellow parishioners for the prayers and support that have been offered on behalf of our parish.

It is evident that when we come together as a parish, we can reap the benefits of many ministries and services that one person cannot do alone. This holds true for our diocese as well; when our Parishes come together as One Family we sow the seeds of the love of our faith with others and journey with those in need.

Long Island is known for its quality of life; it is hard to believe that there are many people who must make difficult decisions on basic living expenses. Although inflation has eased a bit, the rising prices of food, gas at the pump, utilities, and of course housing continue to negatively impact a family's budget.

Support for those in need is crucial for many families, especially our senior community. Our Long Island community has had a 25% to 30% increase in the senior demographic, leading to an increase of 65% of these seniors living in poverty. Your donation allows Catholic Charities to provide affordable safe housing to senior citizens, operating 16 housing facilities in Nassau and Suffolk counties, totaling more than 1,329 units.

Additionally, it ensures the physical, social, and spiritual well-being of residents. Housing programs are also available for those with developmental disabilities and our veterans in need. Through our Parish Social Ministry programs, we bring food and hope during these challenging times. I would like to share a comment from a senior and resident of Bishop Ryan Village, Hampton Bays with you:

“My neighbors and I often say that we are tremendously relieved to have dignified, affordable housing and are very grateful to this ministry of the Church assisting us in our time need.”

Your gift to the CMA also provides funding to educate our seminarians and provide faith formation to our young people and lay leaders, more than 600,000 are served each year. If you have not had an opportunity to make a gift to the Catholic Ministries Appeal, I ask you to prayerfully consider a gift. Please know that 100% of every dollar raised is restricted to fund the objectives, programs, and mission supported by the Catholic Ministries Appeal and every gift makes a difference in the lives of others no matter the amount.

May God bless you and your loved ones.
