REFLECTIONS

Living Stewardship

This week, put Jesus' warning into practice in your life- make time to go to confession and prepare yourself for this Advent season.

Stewardship

A Way of Life

Bulletin Reflection

In today's Gospel, Jesus warns us to always be vigilant in our spiritual life .

St. Vincent de Paul

Advent symbolizes our human condition. We long. We hope. We rejoice in what we have. We yearn for what we have not. Even nature conspires during Advent time to make us feel our human incompleteness. As the darkness of winter descends, we long for the light. As cold numbs us, we yearn for the warmth of God's love. As plants and leaves die, sometimes with a final flash of brilliance, we hope for resurrection and new life. The Lord is about to create something new. Isaiah cherishes this theme. He repeats it again and again. "See, I am doing a new deed, even now it comes to light: Can you not see it? Yes, I am making a road in the wilderness, paths in the wilds."

(Maloney, Seasons in Spirituality, p.49)

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

St. Jude Church was truly blessed in hosting the First Class relic of St. Jude last Monday. We were grateful to be chosen and being able to bring our prayers to St. Jude for his powerful intercession. I want to thank Fr. Carlos Martins for orchestrating the event with us and celebrating Mass in honor of St. Jude. Yes, it was a remarkable and very special day for all of us.

When a parish hosts such an event it needs the help of volunteers who will not only set it up and break it down, but also to be ushers and security throughout the day. This also included volunteers to help assist in providing the religious articles for sale. The reason it was such a wonderful experience for all was because of these volunteers, our parishioners from the St. Jude Shrine Knights of Columbus. Thank you so much!!! You guys were there setting it up at 11:00 in the morning, ushers during the whole day, and then breaking it down at 10:00 in the evening. Yes, thanks to you St. Jude Church shined ever so brightly on that special sacred day honoring our patron saint. And also it is with heartfelt gratitude to our St. Jude Rosary Altar Society for providing the needed assistance in making the day so beautiful.

Here we are now in the Advent season, the extraordinary liturgical time of the Church's calendar year where we experience the two-fold Coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. These first two weeks will be reminders for each of us to give a self examination of our conscience in how well prepared are we in the Second Coming of our Lord. Are we prepared for that encounter? We don't know the day or hour as Jesus tells us, and so we are called to take these first days of Advent as a sacred time of reflection and prayer with the hope of being strengthened in faith and a more intimate relationship with our Lord Jesus Christ who loves us and gives us his peace.

St. Jude, pray for us ~

Blessings & Joy,

Fr. RYAN

EUCCHARISTIC REVIVAL BULLETIN INFORMATION

WEEK 10

This week we will be sharing Session Two from the Eucharistic Revival Webinars.
The Theme is Why A Church?

We uniquely encounter the love of God in the Church Jesus established for us. Jesus didn't simply leave us a message or instructions to follow. Jesus offers us the Church, his Mystical Body, so that through her we may share with him in his divine life. She makes Jesus present to us through a profound, unbreakable, mysterious continuity with him. She offers trustworthy and authoritative teaching, handing on all that God has revealed, and helps us apply it to our lives today. She contains and communicates his grace, manifesting God's love for us and helping us on our earthly pilgrimage to the heavenly Jerusalem. What a gift!

Discussion Questions.

1. The Church is essentially a way for us to encounter the presence of God that we need to live life to the full. It's the place where we can look for authoritative teaching, interpreting all that he left us and helping us to apply it to our lives today. How has the church affected your life?

2. What the research shows is that people who went through their life connected to a community... ended up physically and emotionally in much better shape than their peers. As a Catholic, this research is no surprise to me, that we were made by relationship for relationship. Fr Ryan says this often in his homily, "we are social beings". What can you do to become a bigger part of your church community?

3. The fact that God saves us as a family means... that we have an organized religion. Religion was never meant to be a private, personal thing. Private prayer is important and necessary, but community prayer is equally as important. Do you attend holy hours and other prayer services? How can you incorporate community prayer more into your life? Even if it's just once a month.

4. We see a lot in the scandal that has happened in the Church. There are many people who have been deeply, deeply hurt... This is a crisis and stuff that should have never happened... When sin happens... our God is an incredible source of love and healing. How do you react to other people who say they stopped going to church due to these scandals? How can you bring people back to the church community?

5. Receiving the Eucharist on Sunday is a big deal because I believe it is what Jesus says it is. How can you bring more people to the Eucharist?

mobile device

QR Code to video:

“The Eucharist Revival is a call back to the heart of the faith so that we can be vessels of Christ in our families, communities, and parishes.”

9:00 PM - 1:00 AM

WE ASK EACH PARISH TO JOIN IN PRAYING ON THIS HOLY OCCASION.
We understand that not every parish is equipped to host prayer during those late hours thus you may modify your prayer schedule to be united in prayer at a time that works best for your parish that evening. Please consider having a Holy Hour for life that evening.

Brief History

On the Feast of the Immaculate Conception (then celebrated on December 9th), our Lady of Guadalupe, Patroness of the Unborn and of the Americas, first appeared to Juan Diego. The National Night of Prayer for Life bridges these two feasts to honor Our Blessed Mother and to pray for the Lord's mercy and restore life, liberty, faith, and peace.
