REFLECTIONS

Living Stewardship

When you enter church for Mass, are you conscious of the way you act and/or dress? This Lenten season, be sure to wear your Sunday best (and make that a habit even after Lent) and when you sit in your pew, pray before God—don't scroll through text messages on your phone.

Bulletin Reflection

Meditate on the words, "Zeal for your house will consume me."

St. Vincent de Paul

St. Vincent tells us: "It is our vocation... to set people's hearts ablaze, to do what the Son of God did, who came to light a fire on the earth in order to set it aflame with his love. It is not enough for me to love God if my neighbor does not love him. I must love my neighbor as the image of God and the object of his love... I must act in such a way that people love their Creator and each other in mutual charity for the love of God who loved them so much that he delivered up his own Son to death for them."
(US Manual of the SVDP, p.54)

EUCCHARISTIC REVIVAL BULLETIN INFORMATION

Week 24

Quotes are from this wonderful resource available online.

St. Peter Julian Eymard, “Apostle of the Eucharist”, serves as the retreat master in this book written by Fr. Don Calloway.

TOPIC: REPARATION

Loving our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament is a call to holiness. Unfortunately, the world is filled with people who show reverence to the Blessed Sacrament, some of which are Catholics who attend Mass!

Catholics are called to “honor, praise and adore the Blessed Sacrament.” St Peter Eymard continues with offering a solution; “Strive to become a victim of reparation for so much indifference, so many sacrileges against Jesus Eucharistic.”

This week pray the prayer of Eucharistic Reparation. Attend a Holy Hour and spend some time with the Eucharistic Lord. He is waiting for you!

I adore Thee profoundly, my Jesus, true Bread of life eternal; and by this my act of adoration I would make Thee compensation for all the wounds with which Thy Sacred Heart bleeds daily to see the profanation of those churches wherein Thou abides beneath the sacramental species, to receive the love and adoration of Thy people. I offer Thee, in reparation for all those irreverences, that most Precious Blood which Thou didst shed and I say every moment:

*Blessed and praised every moment
Be the most holy and divine Sacrament.*

EASTER FLOWERS & REMEMBRANCE ENVELOPES

Easter Flowers can be dedicated to or in memory of your loved ones. Their names will be printed in the Easter bulletin if received by Tuesday, March 19th. Those donations received after the 19th will be printed in future bulletins.

Easter Remembrances are for the 9 Easter Novena Masses. Have your loved ones remembered beginning Easter Sunday.

You may use the envelopes you received in the mail or use envelopes you may find in the lobby of the Church and you can place them either in the collection baskets during Mass or drop off at the Rectory. Thank you!

Mass Book 2024

The Mass Book for the second half of 2024 will open for intentions to be purchased on Monday, March 18th.

How to Go to Confession: The Sacrament of Penance/Reconciliation

The sacrament of penance, also called “reconciliation,” is different in this aspect. You won’t go to someone’s home and see a photo on their mantle from their first (or any!) penance. No invitations will arrive announcing the date and time that a loved one plans to go through reconciliation.

With the sacrament of penance, the experience is different but no less important than other sacraments. Like other sacraments, its roots come from the Bible:

“Now this is the message that we have heard from him and proclaim to you: God is light, and in him there is no darkness at all. If we say, “We have fellowship with him,” while we continue to walk in darkness, we lie and do not act in truth. But if we walk in the light as he is in the light, then we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of his Son Jesus cleanses us from all sin. If we say, “We are without sin,” we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we acknowledge our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from every wrongdoing. If we say, “We have not sinned,” we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.” 1 John 1:5-10

Confession: Don’t Be Intimidated

When we think about our sinfulness, we might feel embarrassed or alone. It’s not something we want to share with others. We may feel intimidated or reluctant to share our sins with the priest.

If you’re nervous or uneasy about going to confession, remember these three things:

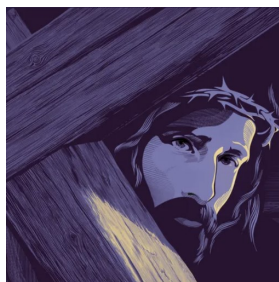

- It doesn’t matter if it’s been a long time (or a short time), God is still happy you’re there.
- Our God is a God of mercy. God wants to forgive us.
- God, not the priest present in the confessional, is the one doing actually absolving your sins.

Priests are bound by a canon law concept known as the “seal of the confessional,” which forbids them from sharing confessions under any circumstance.

If you’re worried about inconveniencing or bothering the priest, take comfort in the beautiful description of the sacrament from Pope John Paul II:

“[Confession] is, without doubt, the most difficult and delicate, the most exhausting and demanding, but also one of the most beautiful and consoling ministries of the priest.”

In other words, it’s hard but rewarding work—exactly what priests are called to do.

Why You Should Go to Confession

God absolving our sins helps us draw nearer to God. Sin distances us from God; the sacrament of reconciliation bridges that gap and better unites us with God. In our confession, the priest may suggest ways to avoid sinning in the future, helping us live holier lives each day.

As the USCCB explains, penance also “challenges us to have the same kind of compassion and forgiveness for those who sin against us.”

In this way, going to confession can be seen as a selfless act: When we experience God’s love and forgiveness, we’re better prepared to extend those gifts to those around us.

Examples of Sins to Say at Confession

Your sins are entirely personal. There’s no exact guide for what you ought to confess. No universal playbook for the sins you need to atone for.

The best guide is your conscience.

Spend time examining your conscience to take stock of moments when you’ve missed the mark, distancing yourself from God, the Church and those around you.

The 10 Commandments can provide a helpful framework for prompting you to think about ways you've sinned. It's best to consider them broadly and not literally.

For example, with "Thou Shalt Not Kill," you may have never committed murder, but have you been violent or abusive? Have you injured others with your deeds or words?

Don't obsess over identifying every small thing that could possibly be considered a sin. Prayerfully reflect on major actions that could be considered sinful through the lens of the 10 Commandments. As you do this, remember God's love and mercy for you.

When you've identified a time and place for your confession, and you've given some time to reflect on your sins, you're ready to go to the confessional.

How to Confess as a Catholic

How to Go to Confession: A Step by Step Guide

1 - Enter the confessional and greet the priest.

Begin by making the sign of the cross and say "Bless me, Father, for I have sinned. It's been [however many days/months/years] since my last confession."

2 - List your sins.

Mention venial (everyday) sins and mortal sins, which are more serious. Try to be thorough, but it's OK if you don't remember every single sin. It may be more of a conversation, as the priest may ask questions or comment. It doesn't have to be a non-stop laundry list of sins. When you're done, conclude by saying "I'm sorry for these and all my sins."

3 - Listen to the priest.

When you're done confessing your sins, the priest may offer some guidance and suggest ways to avoid sins in the future. He'll then give you a penance, which could be a form of prayer, a service or some work of mercy. Often, you'll be able to complete your penance while still at church.

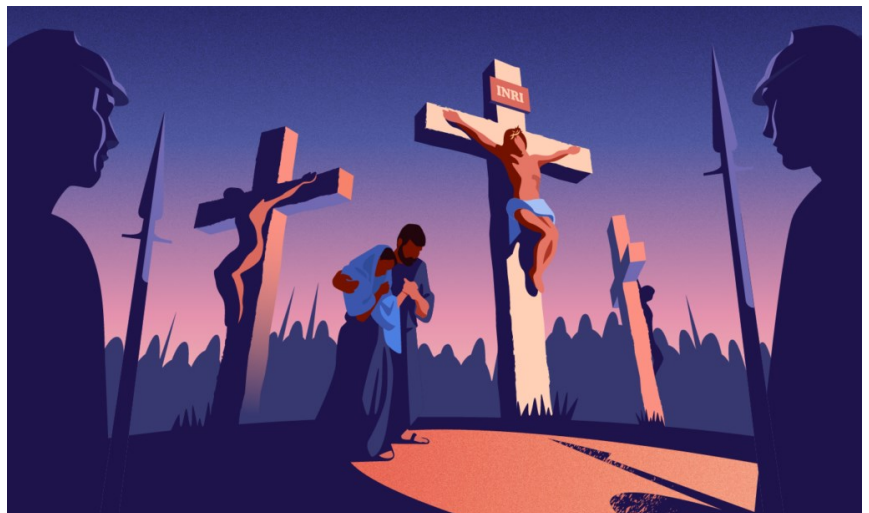

4 - Pray the Act of Contrition.

This prayer is short and simple: My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against You whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with Your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In his name, my God, have mercy.

5 - Receive absolution from God, via the priest.

The priest will say the following prayer to absolve you of your sins: God, the Father of mercies, through the death and the resurrection of His Son has reconciled the world to Himself and sent the Holy Spirit among us for the forgiveness of sins; through the ministry of the Church may God give you pardon and peace, and I absolve you from your sins in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Make the sign of the cross and close with Amen.

6 - Depart and fulfill your act of penance.

Confession

Every Saturday at St. Jude Church 3:00pm – 3:45pm

The sacrament of Reconciliation is a healing moment of God's love and mercy. It is a moment of grace. For whatever reason sin can separate us from the bond of the unity of the love of God. God forgives. Our God is a merciful God who restores and reconciles us to him.

The act of going to this powerful sacrament is the first step of expressing our sin and sorrow with a contrite heart so that God heals and restores us to his peace and love.
