CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

The 2024 Catholic Ministries Appeal

The 2024 Catholic Ministries Appeal has started here in our parish and in parishes across the Diocese. Please give prayerful consideration to help fund the essential ministries and services supported by this appeal. Brochure envelopes are available in the lobby of the Church.

Our 2024 parish goal is $59,700, remaining the same as last year.

Goal		$ 59,700.00
Total Pledged	84.44%	$ 50,412.00
Payments Received		$ 27,270.00
Donors:	94

The parish will receive 20% of the goal once all pledged payments are received. The parish will receive an additional 80% of monies pledged & received over goal.

Our parish reached 107.2% of our 2023 goal and received back $15,374.79. Thank you to all our generous donors who supported the appeal!

St Jude Church 75th Anniversary

As the year 2024 moves forward it is with great joy that St. Jude Church is in the midst of celebrating its 75th Anniversary! It was in 1949 when Bishop Thomas Molloy established St. Jude Church and appointed Rev. John Skelly as the pastor, which would be the beginning of what we have become: a beautiful, faith-filled community that continues to build upon the cornerstone of Jesus Christ.

Throughout this year we will recall the many memories and special moments of our history. If anyone has pictures at St. Jude Church, please send them to bulletin@StJudeMB.org we will be creating a journal and including the pictures we receive.

REFLECTIONS

Living Stewardship

Remember that the Holy Name of Jesus is powerful. This week (and throughout your whole life), invoke the name of Jesus when faced with temptation, fear or worry. Silently call upon His name in faith and trust.

Bulletin Reflection

In the First Reading, St. Peter declares that a man had been healed in the name of Jesus.

St. Vincent de Paul

The Manual of the Society states: To those served, Vincentians are expected to give the same deep and serious thought that they give to their own blood family. Sharing does not consist merely in the distribution of material goods; it also implies that our personal resources and potential of mind and heart, of time and influence, are placed at the service of others. Sharing means taking part in the joys and sorrows, in the worries and the hopes of others. It equally involves a readiness, on the part of the members and the Society, to accept help, suggestions, advice, encouragement and collaboration. Sharing means being willing to be disturbed. It is a sign of the true spirit of charity to be ready to share ideas and to accept giving in on some of our own.

We are all poor in one way or another. That is perhaps what draws us all closer to one another and to Him who consented to share our humanity. (US Manual, P.49)

ADORATION with
Divine Mercy Chaplet
Fridays at 3pm
St. Jude Church

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

This past Wednesday St. Jude Church celebrated the Sacrament of Confirmation where our young men and women received the sealing in of the Holy Spirit with its gifts of Wisdom, Understanding, Knowledge, Fortitude, Counsel, Piety, and fear of the Lord. This sacrament places a characteristic mark upon one's soul and enables one to truly be strengthened to live a life of integrity, knowing right from wrong, and becoming more and more transformed to Christ. Yes, one becomes anointed with the Chrism oil and now shares in the priesthood of Jesus Christ which begins for all the baptized Catholics.

I want to thank Bishop Andrzej Zglejszewski for celebrating this austere and sacred moment with us. His words of encouragement to our youth was inspiring and uplifting, giving them the courage and confidence to not be afraid of living out their new life in the Spirit. In today's world our young men and women seem to have so many conflicting and contrary views that can go against living a moral and upright life. Bishop Andrzej truly enlightened us all and made us realize the Holy Spirit is going to guide each of us as long as we open ourselves to God.

Congratulations to all of the young men and women who received the sealing of the Holy Spirit in the sacrament of Confirmation!

As most of you are aware our statue of Mary on the corner of Neighborhood Rd. was in grave need of repair. It had been there since 1972 and after all these years had weathered so much that it really needed to be replaced. I want to thank an anonymous parishioner for donating the new statue which will be placed on a new pedestal this week. We will have a blessing ceremony at the May Crowning in May. I want to thank the couple who made this possible! Also, I would like to thank our parishioner Mr. Joe Sidaris who did all the cement and brick work for Mary. Joe's company, Sidaris Concrete has done all our cement/sidewalk/ and Shrine paths here at St. Jude Church. Thank you Joe and your wonderful team of workers!

St. Jude, pray for us

~ Blessings & Joy,

Fr. Ryan

CONFIRMATION

For "by the sacrament of Confirmation, the baptized are more perfectly bound to the Church and are enriched with a special strength of the Holy Spirit. Hence they are, as true witnesses of Christ, more strictly obliged to spread and defend the faith by word and deed." CCC 1285

In memory of Msgr. John Heinlein

Memories...

In memory of Msgr. John Heinlein

“We are forever blessed for having Msgr. John Heinlein a part of our lives for so many years. He touched all of us in so many ways. His gentle, kind, and loving presence made each of us not only feel good but, I think, changed us in perhaps looking at ourselves and recognize that we too should be kind, caring, patient, and loving toward others. Msgr. John was a holy man who was a true witness of the Gospel. We can be assured that he is now in the peace and light of God’s Kingdom. May he forever dwell with all the holy ones and saints in heaven. Thank you, Msgr. John for all you did for me and our St. Jude family!”

EUCCHARISTIC REVIVAL BULLETIN INFORMATION

The Mass

This week, we continue with the meaningful actions that are happening during the Lamb of God. The Roman Missal indicates that during the singing or recitation of the Lamb of God, the priest “takes the host, breaks it over the paten, and places a small piece in the chalice, saying quietly: ‘May this mingling of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ bring eternal life to us who receive it’.” We call this part of the Mass the Fraction or the Breaking and the Commingling. The Catholic Encyclopedia teaches that, “The ‘Breaking,’ from the Latin, fractio, is the act of breaking the bread of the species consecrated in the Mass” (Catholic Encyclopedia, p. 226), which is why the breaking is sometimes called the fracturing rite. “This rite, which is simple in its appearance, is full of ancient meaning. At the Last Supper,

Jesus ‘broke the bread’ to distribute to the disciples. After the Resurrection, the disciples recognized Jesus in the ‘Breaking of the Bread.’ Both in the Acts of the Apostles and in the letters of St. Paul, the Eucharistic celebration is often referred to as ‘breaking of the bread.’” (A Study of the Mass” p. 19). Dr. Edward Sri notes several Scripture passages regarding “Breaking the Bread,” including: Mt 14:19; 15:36; Mk 6:41; 8:6; Lk 9:16; Mt 26:26; Mk 14:22; Lk 22:19; 1 Cor 11:24; Lk 24:30; Acts 2:42, 46 (A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, pp. 132–33).

A Sign of Unity: “Breaking Bread” is a sign of our unity, together sharing in the “one loaf.” Although for practicality many churches use smaller hosts for the distribution of Holy Communion, the symbolism of the fracturing reminds us that we are united together in Christ, not only in the Mass where we are but also with those present at Mass in every time and place. Another sign of unity is the Church’s direction that, if possible, the faithful should receive Communion from hosts consecrated at that particular Mass. We know Christ is truly present and remains so in the hosts reserved in the tabernacle. Receiving hosts consecrated in the Mass we are participating in provides a sign of unity and also strengthens our participation in the sacrifice of Christ. (Recall from the Old Testament/Temple times that people were given a portion of the sacrifice, and their participation was completed through eating that portion.)

A Symbol of Reality: As mentioned above, after the initial breaking of the Host, the priest breaks off a small piece and places it into the chalice. This is called the “Commingling.” As the Diocese of Peoria explains, “Placing a piece of the host in the chalice is a very ancient custom dating back to at least the fourth century. Originally, it was designed to show unity and communion between the pope, bishops and their local Churches. Fragments of the host from the Masses celebrated by the pope or bishop were carried by the deacons to the local churches and placed into the chalices during the celebration of the Mass. It symbolized the reality that the entire [C]hurch is present at every Mass. Even though it is not practiced as such today, the commingling of the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ remains a beautiful part of the Communion Rite as it expresses a great reality. When the consecration takes place, the bread and the wine are consecrated separately, for this is how our Lord instituted the memorial sacrifice of His death on the cross. He anticipated how His death would take place: the separation of His Body and Blood and He bled to His death on the cross. The commingling at this point during the Mass symbolizes the Resurrection of Jesus when on the third day His Body and Soul were reunited forever” (A Study of the Mass, p. 19).

Reminding us that the whole Christ is present in either/both the Consecrated Host and/or the Chalice, Charles Belmonte writes, “Some say that the separated species signify the Victim in the state of death (the body in one place, the blood in another), whereas in reality our Lord is present in either and in both species, as he is in heaven, living and glorious. Therefore, the mingling symbolizes the re-union of Christ’s body and soul as in his resurrection. It is, however, probable that the mingling must have corresponded to the dogmatic need to show clearly the unity and indivisibility of the body and blood of Jesus Christ” (Understanding the Mass, pp. 179–80).

A Sacrament of Unity: As a priest, I really enjoy thinking about the ancient custom of having the deacon bring a fragment of a host consecrated at Mass by the bishop. Sometimes after the commingling prayer, I will silently say a short prayer for the bishop. I ask the Lord to gift him with wisdom and strength to lead us well. I ask that he be strengthened through reception of the Eucharist and that his heart continue to become more like Christ’s. In that moment, this sign of unity recalls me back to ordination day, when priests promise respect and obedience to the bishop and his successors. The Eucharist truly is our sacrament of unity—drawing each of us into greater unity with Christ and with one another.

All that from the Fraction Rite and Commingling! This rite shows us very concretely that there are no parts of the Mass without deep meaning, even gestures that may seem small. Does this mean we have to pay attention at every moment? Do your best, and realize that if you wander off, you might miss something really special!

MINISTRIES

*Revitalizing our Faith –
Renewed by the Eucharist*

Dear Friends:

A Blessed and Happy Easter! We entered this season of Easter seeing the many difficulties facing our world and community. Through it all, the People of God on Long Island continue to be inspired by the Word of God and devoted to being instruments of Eucharistic Revival.

Pope Francis reminds us that "The Eucharist impels us to a strong and committed love of neighbor, for we cannot truly understand or live the meaning of the Eucharist if our hearts are closed to our brothers and sisters, especially those who are poor, suffering, weary or may have gone astray in life."

So crucial to our work as instruments of Eucharistic Revival are the funds raised by the Catholic Ministries Appeal. Those funds help us to strengthen our mission and be present in ministry to so many people throughout our beloved Diocese. We can provide programs and services to our parishes, offer hope to those in need, nurture the faith of our youth, college students, and young adults, and support formation for our deacons, lay leaders, and seminarians.

Ordained in 2023, Rev. Stephen McClernon shared why the Appeal was so important to his formation. "The CMA has been influential in my life. One of the ministries it supports is the Holy Hours for Vocations at the Seminary. We gather young people from across the Island to hold Eucharistic Adoration. During my college years, this experience was a big part of my faith and my decision to become a priest. The Catholic Ministries Appeal has helped foster my vocation to the priesthood."

Thank you for prayerfully considering a gift to the 2024 Catholic Ministries Appeal. Please pray for the success of this year's Appeal and for those who are supported by it.

You and your loved ones are remembered in my prayers and Masses. May the Risen Lord guide and strengthen you in this Easter season.

Sincerely in Christ

Most Reverend John O. Barres
Bishop of Rockville Centre

Worldwide Marriage Encounter

1 John 2:1-3 "My children, I am writing this to you so you may not commit sin. But, if anyone does sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ, the righteous one. He is expiation for our sins, and not for our sins only but for those of the whole world. That we may be sure that we know him is to keep his commandments." As we get to know Jesus more and obey his commandments, he will open our minds to understand the scriptures. Jesus will also open your heart to love and forgive one another. Take a leap of faith, and trust God to nourish your relationship. Sign up for a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Experience and you will learn the tools to transform your marriage. You can find one by looking up WWME.org. Some of the dates to sign up are:

June 7-June 9, 2024 in Upton,, MA
June 21-June 23, 2024 in Huntington, NY

Ladies Ancient Order of Hibernians – Div. 5 The Power of Prayer

Our country and our world need the power of prayer. Due to the severity of the situation, our state, country, and the world are experiencing a time of great trials. As a result, LAOH has arranged for a special retreat day at the beautiful Cormaria Retreat Center. This retreat day is dedicated as an opportunity for the Irish catholic women to respond to some of the needs facing Christianity in today's world.

The principal essence of this day is the heritage St. Patrick gave us when he lit the fire in defiance of the brutal pagan king who ruled the Irish people. We are hoping that you can attend.

Date: Sunday, April 28, 2024

Time: 9:30am. – 3:00pm.

Location: Cormaria Retreat House, Sag Harbor, NY 11963

Cost: $50.00pp. Includes brunch.

Please contact the rectory office if you are interested in attending!

WHAT'S THE MISSION?

The Mission Middle School Academy at Our Lady Queen of Apostles School was established in 2018. This innovative approach to middle school education challenges students to academic excellence in the context of a faith filled environment. Steeped in respect and dignity of the human person, students are given a strong foundation to excel as leaders and missionary disciples in high school, college, and beyond.

The Sisters of St. Dominic of Amityville Celebrate Annual Beauty of the Spirit Event

Our 23rd Beauty of the Spirit event is scheduled for Thursday, June 13th at The Crest Hollow Country Club in Woodbury. This year's Keynote Speaker is S. Christine Sammons, OP, Coordinator of Parish Social Ministry at St. Bernard's Church in Levittown, NY. Sister Christine joined the parish staff in 2003 in response to the parishioners' desire for broader outreach to low-income neighbors in the community. She works closely with the Society of St. Vincent de Paul and other volunteers trained to assess needs and provide appropriate assistance. S. Christine oversees the food pantry, the Charitable KIDZ, Meals-on-Wheels, the bereavement ministry, and partners with Catholic Charities and the Nassau County Department of Social Services.

Each year our program celebrates the beauty of the spirit of women - their strength, compassion, and wisdom. Our guests enjoy fantastic auctions and raffles, as well as an inspirational lecture from a Sister keynote speaker.

Proceeds from this year's event are designated to the renovation and beautification of the 3rd and 4th floors of the Motherhouse in Amityville. New flooring, fresh paint, and updated furniture will brighten the rooms where our aging Sisters gather daily for activities and meals.

For more information, please contact the Office of Advancement at 631-842-6000 ext. 246 or visit: <https://sistersofstdominic.org/2024luncheon>.

*Revitalizando nuestra fe
Renovados por la Eucaristía*

Queridos amigos:

¡Feliz Pascua de Resurrección! Iniciamos este tiempo Pascual viendo las muchas dificultades que el mundo y nuestra comunidad enfrentan. A pesar de todo, la Palabra de Dios continúa inspirando y animando al Pueblo de Dios en Long Island, pueblo que con devoción son instrumento del Reavivamiento Eucarístico.

El Papa Francisco nos recuerda que “La Eucaristía nos impulsa a un amor al prójimo fuertemente comprometido, porque no podemos comprender ni vivir verdaderamente el significado de la Eucaristía si nuestros corazones están cerrados a nuestros hermanos y hermanas, especialmente a los pobres, a los que sufren, a los que están agotados o perdidos en la vida.”

Como instrumentos del Reavivamiento Eucarístico, los fondos que recauda la Campaña de Apoyo a los Ministerios Católicos son cruciales para llevar a cabo esa labor de ayuda. Esos fondos fortalecen la misión y los ministerios que auxilian a muchas personas en toda nuestra querida Diócesis. Gracias a lo recaudado podemos ofrecer programas y servicios a nuestras parroquias, podemos dar esperanza al desvalido, nutrir la fe de nuestros jóvenes, estudiantes universitarios y adultos jóvenes, y sostener la formación de nuestros diáconos, líderes laicos y seminaristas.

El Padre Stephen McClernon se ordenó sacerdote el año 2023. Él compartió con nosotros la importancia de la Campaña en su formación. “La Campaña de Apoyo a los Ministerios Católicos (CMA por sus siglas en inglés) ha tenido gran influencia en mi vida. Uno de los ministerios que la CMA sostiene es la Hora Santa por las Vocaciones en el Seminario. Para ello invitamos a los jóvenes de todo Long Island a la Adoración Eucarística. Yo estaba en la universidad cuando participé y fue una gran experiencia para mi fe y fue lo que me decidió a ser sacerdote. La Campaña de Apoyo a los Ministerios Católicos fomentó mi vocación al sacerdocio.”

En oración, considere hacer un donativo a favor de la Campaña de Apoyo a los Ministerios Católicos 2024. Por favor también rece por el éxito de la Campaña de este año y por todas las personas a las que la Campaña ayuda.

Los tendré presente a usted y a sus seres queridos en mis oraciones y en la celebración de la Santa Misa. Que Nuestro Señor resucitado lo guie y fortalezca en este tiempo Pascual.

Sinceramente en Jesucristo

Muy Reverendo John O. Barres
Obispo de Rockville Centre
